Revolutionary new product from Bully Dog

AMERICAN FALLS, ID

Whether you want to tow your heavy trailer down the highway, get better fuel economy, race your buddy at the track or simply become a more efficient driver the GT is for you!

Bully Dog Technologies, the company known for their amazing technology has done it again with the introduction of the GT or Gauge Tuner. The new product is actually four products all rolled into one sleek, new design. It serves as a downloader that adds power, a tuner allowing for multiple drive train setting to be tuned and adjusted, a gauge that is fully customizable to each user's preferences and monitors four gauge functions at one time and lastly it is a Driving Coach. This revolutionary Driving Coach software monitors wasted vehicle energy and then informs the driver how to change their driving habits to increase fuel economy.

The new GT is loaded with additional features; the Diesel unit works on Dodge, Ford and GM vehicles, while the Gas unit works of Dodge, Ford, GM and Nissan cars, trucks and SUVs. That's right one part number works on all gas or diesel vehicles! The GT also comes packaged complete with all necessary mounting hardware.
